Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: It is my opinion that it is a matter of opinion.

Mr. K. R. Elankath: Shall we take it to be the opinion of Government or of Mr. Chandrasekharan?

Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: It is a matter of opinion.

Co-ordination of various laboratories in the State.

31. *Mr. M. K. Ananthasiva Aiyar (Nominated): Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) whether there is or was a proposal to co-ordinate the various laboratories in the State into one central research laboratory under the control of the Travancore University;

(b) what has become of it; and

(c) what will be the financial effect if such co-ordination is made?

Mr. C. V. Chandrasekharan: (a) Yes.

(b) and (c) The matter is under consideration.

Inscription behind the seats of the Judges in the First Bench of the High Court.

32. *Mr. N. V. Chacko: Will the Government be pleased to state the meaning in English of the inscription behind the seats of the Judges in the First Bench of the High Court?

Mr. M. Govinda Pillai: The meaning of this sentence must be well known to all lawyers.

Mr. N. V. Chacko: May I know what the inscription is?

Mr. M. Govinda Pillai: It is "Fiat Justitia Ruat Coelum."

Mr. N. V. Chacko: May I know what the meaning is?

(The President called the next question).

Mr. N. V. Chacko: Sir, I have not finished my question.

President: I considered that question and refuse the right of further questions on it.

Military training to the students of the Travancore University.

33. *Mr. N. V. Chacko: Will the Government be pleased to state:

(a) whether they are including military training also in the courses proposed for the students of the constituent and affiliated colleges of the Travancore University; and

(b) whether they have considered the various advantages of military training to the students and to the State?

LIBRARY ARCHIVES Kerala Legislative Assembly